

FOOD SYSTEMS SOLUTIONS DIALOGUE

LEARNING for food systems transformation: Gender Mainstreaming

Wednesday 21 June 2023

Session I – 8:00 – 9:30 AM CEST | Session II – 16:00 – 17:30 CEST

Background

The “Making Food Systems Work for Women and Girls Coalition for Action” brings forward the work of the UN Food System Summit - Gender Lever and cluster working groups to foster the implementation of gender and food systems actions in National Food Systems Transformation Pathways, as gender equality and women’s empowerment are central to the transition towards sustainable and resilient agri-food systems.

Purpose of the Dialogue

In preparation for the Stocktaking Moment, the UN Food Systems Coordination Hub is pleased to host a session led by the Coalition for Action Making Food Systems Work for Women and Girls, focusing on the linkages between gender equality and food systems transformation. The Dialogue will foster peer-to-peer learning and identify opportunities to scale up policy action and multistakeholder collaboration for sustainable and gender transformative solutions and to engage new partners in the Coalition’s efforts.
